

Free HSNO Information Workshops Register your Interest

THE DEPARTMENT OF LABOUR, ERMA NEW ZEALAND, ACCIDENT COMPENSATION CORPORATION AND THE NZ CHEMICAL INDUSTRY COUNCIL WILL BE HOLDING A NUMBER OF FREE HAZARDOUS SUBSTANCES AND NEW ORGANISMS ACT (HSNO) INFORMATION WORKSHOPS THROUGHOUT NEW ZEALAND, SEPTEMBER – NOVEMBER 2008.

Specifically designed for people running or employed by small to medium businesses that use hazardous substances, these short, cost-effective, informative workshops will cover:

- What you need to know about hazardous substances in the workplace
- Meeting workplace health and safety obligations
- Managing chemicals in the workplace safely
- HSNO Compliance Tools available to help you
- Hands-on experience identifying workplace hazards

Workshops will last for three hours. Government and industry experts will explain basic workplace health and safety compliance responsibilities (with a strong emphasis on HSNO) and show you how to achieve them with minimum fuss and expense. Each workshop includes a challenging practical exercise involving chemical hazards in a workplace.

Register your interest today by emailing your name, address, contact details and number of people registering to hsnoworkshop@dol.govt.nz or post to HSNO Workshop, Department of Labour, PO Box 3705, Wellington 6140 and we will send you the details of your local workshop.
